The chart is not Bates stamped. If we produce the un-Bates stamped version will you agree to switch it out next week for the BS'd version? If so, I will try to go to the office tonight to pdf it to you.

Guys:

You clearly have a chart of all the bates #s of the DHFs for all the products because you told us on the phone the other day that you do. Will you please provide it to us! Why wait?
